CHAPTER VI.

Rules
inventories.

SEC. 1. In every case wherein letters testamentary, or of administration, or of collection, are granted, in order that all persons interested in the personal estate may have an opportunity of knowing, as nearly as may be, the amount of the same, an inventory, in case the estate lies in one county, or can conveniently be collected together, or inventories, in case the property lies in more than one county, or cannot conveniently be collected together, shall be returned to the office granting the administration.

SEC. 2. And on granting any letters testamentary, or of administration, or of collection, a warrant or warrants shall issue, under the seal of office, authorizing two persons of discretion, not related to the deceased, nor interested in the administration, to appraise the goods, chattels and personal estate, of the deceased, known to them, or to be shewn by the executor, administrator or collector. Form of the warrant. 'The State of Maryland, To — — — and — — —, greeting. 'This is to authorize you jointly to appraise the goods, chattels and personal estate, of — — —, late of — — —, deceased, so far as they shall come to your sight and knowledge, each of you having first taken the oath, or affirmation, hereto annexed, a certificate whereof you are to return, annexed to an inventory of the said goods, chattels and personal estate, by you appraised in dollars and cents; and in the said inventory you are to set down, in a column or columns opposite to each article, the value thereof. Witness C. D. chief justice (or judge) of the orphans court in — — — county. Test. E. F. Register, &c.'

SEC. 3. And on the death, refusal or neglect to act, of any appraiser, another warrant may forthwith issue in its stead.

SEC. 4. The appraisers, before they proceed to act, shall take the following oath, or affirmation, as the case may be, annexed to, or endorsed on, the warrant, before any person authorized to administer an oath: 'I, A. B., do swear, or solemnly, sincerely and truly affirm, that I will well and truly, without partiality or prejudice, value and appraise the goods, chattels and personal estate, of — — —, deceased, so far as the same shall come to my sight and knowledge, and will, in all respects, perform my duty as appraiser, to the best of my skill and judgment; so help me God.'

SEC. 5. The appraisers shall proceed as conveniently as may be to the discharge of their duty, and shall set down each article, with the value thereof, in dollars and cents; all the valuations on one side of the paper shall be set down in one
