

On motion by Mr. Miller, it was Ordered, That the Commissioners appointed by the Governor "to prepare drafts of General Laws providing for the creation of corporations, and for revising and amending the General Laws in existence on the first day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, providing for the creation of Corporations and for other purposes," be requested to report at the earliest day practicable, for the action of the General Assembly thereon.

On motion by Mr. Henkle, it was Ordered, That the Librarian furnish to the members and officers of the Senate, and the Reporter of the Senate, the same articles of stationery furnished at the last session, if required, not to exceed the amount limited by law.

Mr. Denson submitted the following :

Ordered, That the ministers of religion resident in the city of Annapolis be requested to arrange among themselves, select, and name to the President of the Senate, one of their number of each of the religious denominations to which they respectively belong, alternately to officiate as Chaplain to open the daily sessions of the Senate with prayer ;

Which was read.

Mr. Carroll submitted the following amendment:

Strike out all after the word "ordered" and insert:

That the Chair appoint a committee of three to confer and report the names of ministers suitable to officiate as chaplains in the Senate during the session.

Mr. Denson accepted the amendment.

The question upon the adoption of the order was determined in the affirmative.

The President appointed Messrs. Denson, Carroll and Earle, as said committee.

On motion by Mr. Miller,

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning at 12 o'clock.
