CHAPTER 28.

AN ACT to change a part of the dividing line between the Third and Fourth Election Districts of Baltimore County.

- Preamble. WHEREAS, Pursuant to an Act, passed January fifteenth, eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, Chapter nine, the County Commissioners of Baltimore County did appoint Commissioners, who established the Old Church Road, from what was known as William Owings's Lower Mill (now Painter's Mill) to the Garrison Church, to be the dividing line between the Third and Fourth Election Districts of Baltimore County; and whereas, said Old Church Road having been vacated and closed and a new road opened in lieu thereof, therefore,
