

degree or degrees, which shall be sealed with the public or great seal of the Corporation or College, and delivered to the graduates as honorable and perpetual testimonials of such admission, which diploma, if thought necessary for doing greater honor to such graduates, shall, also, be signed with the names of the President or Trustees and the different Professors, or as many of them as can conveniently sign the same; provided, always, that no student or students within the said Seminary shall ever be admitted to any such degree or degrees, or have their names inserted in any mandate for a degree, until such students have been duly examined and judged worthy of the same at a public examination; and, provided further, that no person or persons, except the students of said Seminary, shall ever be admitted to any honorary or other degree or degrees of the same, unless a majority of the whole number of the Trustees, by a mandate under their privy seal, and signed by the hands of said majority of the Trustees, to the Principal, Vice-Principal and Professors directed, having signified their approbation and authority for the particular admission of said person or persons to said degree or degrees.

Honorary degree.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That this Charter and Act of Incorporation, and every part thereof, shall be good and available in all things in the law, according to the true intent and meaning thereof; and shall be construed, reputed and adjudged in all cases most favorable on the behoof and for the best benefit and behalf of the said Trustees and their successors, so as most effectually to answer the valuable end of this incorporation to the general advancement and promotion of useful knowledge, science and virtue.

Incorporation

Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize the incorporation to issue any token or device to be used as currency.

Banking prohibited.

Sec. 16. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage, and the Legislature reserves to itself the right to alter or repeal at its pleasure.

In force and reservation.

Approved March 30, 1868.