

4 Hen. 6.—1425.

CHAP. 3. Justices in certain cases, may amend their records according to former statutes.

8 Hen. 6.—1429.

CHAP. 9. The duty of justices of peace, where land is entered upon, or detained with force. (Part.)

CHAP. 12. No judgment or record shall be reversed for any writ, process, &c. razed.—What defects in records may be amended by the judges, and what not. (Part.)

CHAP. 15. The justices may in certain cases, amend defaults in records. (Part.)

11 Hen. 6.—1433.

CHAP. 5. The remedy where a tenant granteth over his estate; taketh the profits and committeth waste.

CHAP. 6. No suit pending before any justices, &c. shall be discontinued by a new commission.

CHAP. 8. A confirmation of all statutes made, touching weights and measures. (Part.)

23 Hen. 6.—1444.

CHAP. 9. No sheriff shall let to ferm, his county, or any bailwich.—The sheriff's and bailiff's duties and fees in several cases. (Part.)

1 Rich. 3.—1483.

CHAP. 3. Every justice of peace may let a prisoner to mainprise.—No officer shall seize the goods of a prisoner until he be attained. (Part.)

3 Hen. 7.—1486.

CHAP. 1. The authority of the court of star chamber.—Where one inquest shall enquire of the concealment of another.—A coroner's duty after a murder committed.—A justice of peace shall certify his recognisance, &c. (Part.)

CHAP. 3. Justices of peace may let prisoners to bail.—The sheriff shall certify the names of all his prisoners at the gaol delivery.

CHAP. 4. All deeds of gift made to defraud creditors, void.

CHAP. 10. Costs, &c. to the defendant in error.

4 Hen. 7.—1487.

CHAP. 12. All justices of peace shall execute their commissions, redress injuries and maintain the laws. (Part.)

CHAP. 20. Actions popular by collusion, no bar.

11 Hen. 7.—1494.

CHAP. 12. A means to help and speed poor persons in their suits.

CHAP. 20. Certain alienations made by the wife, of the lands of her deceased husband, shall be void. (Part.)

12 Hen. 7.—1496.

CHAP. 5. For weights and measures.

19 Hen. 7.—1503.

CHAP. 9. Process in actions upon the case sued in the king's bench and common pleas.

CHAP. 10. Sheriffs. (Part.)

CHAP. 13. Riot. (Part.)

CHAP. 20. Costs to defendant in error.

5 Hen. 8.—1513.

CHAP. 6. An act concerning surgeons, to be discharged of quests and other things.

7 Hen. 8.—1515.

CHAP. 4. An act concerning avowries for rents and services. (Part.)

21 Hen. 8.—1529.

CHAP. 4. The sale of lands by part of the executors, lawful.

CHAP. 5. What fees ought to be taken for probate of testaments. (Part.)

CHAP. 19. Avowries shall be made by the lord upon his land, without naming his tenant.

23 Hen. 8.—1531.

CHAP. 14. Process of outlawry to lie on actions on 5 Richard 2, and in covenant and annuity. (Part.)