

CHAP. 15. An act that the plaintiff being nonsuited, shall yield damages to the defendants in actions personal, by the discretion of the justices.

24 Hen. 8.—1532.

CHAP. 8. An act where defendants shall not recover costs.

27 Hen. 8.—1535.

CHAP. 10. An act concerning uses and wills. (Part.)

31 Hen. 8.—1539.

CHAP. 1. For joint tenants and tenants in common.

32 Hen. 8.—1540.

CHAP. 9. The bill of bracerie, and buying of titles.

CHAP. 28. Lessees to enjoy the farm against tenant in tail. (Part.)

CHAP. 30. Misdemeanors.—Jeofailles. (Part.)

CHAP. 32. Joint tenants for life or years.

CHAP. 33. An act that wrongful disseisin is no descent at law.

CHAP. 34. Concerning grantees of reversions to take advantage of the conditions to be performed by the lessees.

CHAP. 37. Executors.—Distress.

35 Hen. 8.—1543.

CHAP. 6. The bill for the better appearance in the nisi prius. (Part.)

37 Hen. 8.—1545.

CHAP. 8. The act that any indictment lacking these words, "vi et armis," shall be good.

1 and 2 Philip and Mary.—1554.

CHAP. 10. An act whereby certain offences be made treasons.—And also, for the government of the king's and queen's majesty's issue. (Part.)

CHAP. 13. An act touching bailment of persons.

2 and 3 Philip and Mary.—1555.

CHAP. 10. An act to take the examination of persons suspected of any manslaughter or felony.

4 and 5 Philip and Mary.—1557.

CHAP. 7. An act to make up the jury with circumstantibus, where the king and queen's majesty is a party.

13 Elizabeth.—1570.

CHAP. 5. An act against fraudulent deeds, alienations, &c. (Part.)

14 Elizabeth.—1572.

CHAP. 9. An act declaring that the tenant and defendant may have a tales de circumstantibus, as well as the demandant or plaintiff.

18 Elizabeth.—1576.

CHAP. 5. An act to redress disorders in common informers. (Part.)

CHAP. 14. An act for the reformation of jeofailles. (Part.)

27 Elizabeth.—1585.

CHAP. 4. An act against covinous and fraudulent conveyances. (Part.)

CHAP. 5. An act for furtherance of justice in cases of demurrer and pleadings.

31 Elizabeth.—1589.

CHAP. 5. An act concerning informers.

CHAP. 11. An act of explanation or declaration of the statute of octavo regis, H. 6, concerning forcible entries, the indictments thereupon found.

43 Elizabeth.

CHAP. 8. Executors.

4 James 1.—1606.

CHAP. 3. An act to give costs to the defendant, upon a nonsuit of the plaintiff, or verdict against him.

7 James 1.—1609.

CHAP. 5. An act for ease in pleading troublesome and contentious suits prosecuted against jus-