

UNITED STATES SENATORS.

73. The Senators chosen to represent this State in the Senate of the United States, shall be elected by the joint ballot of both branches of the Legislature—and the person qualified as the Constitution of the United States directs, having a majority of votes of all the attending members in both branches of the Legislature, shall be declared duly elected.

74. One of the Senators shall be always an inhabitant of the Eastern, and the other of the Western Shore.

75. The commission of such Senator shall be granted and executed in the form and manner heretofore usually practised.

REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS.

76. The election of Representatives of this State in the Congress of the United States, shall be on the same day as the election for members of the General Assembly of this State, unless there should be a special meeting of Congress called by the President of the United States to be holden previous to such day, and after the expiration of the term of service of said Representatives; in which event the Governor shall, by proclamation, direct such election to be held on a day therein named by him.

77. The proclamation of the Governor, mentioned in the preceding section, shall require at least twenty days' notice of the election to be given by the sheriffs of the respective counties and the city of Baltimore.

78. If a vacancy should occur by death, resignation, or otherwise, at such a period as to make it necessary that a Representative or Representatives in Congress from this State, should be chosen before the regular time for such election, the Governor shall, by proclamation, direct that a special election be held to fill said vacancy; which proclamation shall require at least twenty days' notice of such election to be given by the sheriffs of the respective counties or city of Baltimore, composing the Congressional district in which such vacancy may exist.

79. This State shall be divided into six districts, for the choosing of six Representatives in the Congress of the United States, which shall be numbered from one to six.
