

15. Upon said application and affidavit, the clerk shall, by his endorsement on said license, authorize such legal representative or assignee to use or exercise the business of such broker for the unexpired term in said license named.

16. No individual, co-partnership or firm, legal representative or assignee, shall use or occupy at the same time more than one office or place of business for the transaction of his or their business, but any individual, co-partnership or firm, may hold at the same time a license as a stock broker, a license as an exchange broker, and a license as a bill broker, upon paying to the clerk the several sums herein prescribed for a license therefor.

17. If any individual, co-partnership or firm shall use or exercise the business or occupation of a stock broker, or an exchange broker, or a bill broker, without a license therefor, he shall be subject to a penalty of five hundred dollars for each offence, one-half for the use of the State and the other half to the informer.

FISHERIES AND HORSE RACES.

18. Any person carrying on a shad or herring fishery, may obtain a license to sell spirituous liquors and other things during the season for fishing for shad and herrings, by applying to the clerk of the Circuit Court for the county where such fishery is situated, and paying to the said clerk six dollars therefor and the usual fee for issuing the same.

19. The clerks of the several Circuit Courts for the counties, may issue license to any white person to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at horse races, upon the person applying for the same paying the said clerk the sum of four dollars and the usual fee for issuing the same; but the said clerk shall not grant such license to any person unless he shall believe him to be a proper person to receive such license.

HAWKERS AND PEDLARS.

20. No hawker or pedlar shall buy for sale out of the State, or buy to trade, barter or sell, or offer to trade, barter or sell within the State, any goods, wares or merchandise, until he shall have taken out a license for that purpose.
