

pany book aforesaid, discriminating such as belong to the State from such as belong to individuals, within three days after such inspection, and shall also within ten days thereafter transmit by mail a copy of such entry to the adjutant general's office to be recorded therein.

78. The uniform for general officers, their aids-de-camp and brigade inspectors, field, company and staff officers of the militia, shall be the same with the uniform of the officers of the same grade in the corresponding arms of the United States army, excepting that the letters M. M. shall be used whenever the letters U. S. are used by the officers of the United States army; and inasmuch as there is no rifle arm belonging to the said United States army, to afford a pattern uniform for that arm, the majority of the officers of each rifle regiment of the militia of this State may select and establish the uniform to be worn by the field, company and staff officers of such regiment.

79. Each volunteer company may select and establish the uniform of the said company, and the field and staff officers of each volunteer regiment may adopt and establish the uniform to be worn by them.

80. If any officer shall neglect or refuse to uniform himself agreeably to the provisions of this article, he shall be cashiered or fined for the first offence not exceeding fifty dollars, in the discretion of such court martial as the case may require, and a further sum of fifty dollars for the like neglect for every parade succeeding the decision of the court martial imposing said fine, and the commanding officer of any company shall forthwith erase the name of each member thereof who shall neglect or refuse to adopt or provide himself with and appear in the uniform of his company for two succeeding parades, and he shall then forthwith hand over the names of such delinquents to the commanding officer of the company district of the militia, or to serve in the draughted company in which he should serve if he should be a volunteer, under a penalty of twenty dollars for each neglect of said officer, to be imposed on him by such court martial as the case may require.

81. Every commissioned officer shall arm himself as shall be prescribed by the commander in chief of the militia.
