

95. Any officer, non-commissioned officer, musician or private of the militia, who shall be disabled while in the service of this State, shall, as a remuneration for the injury that he may have received, be entitled to half pay.

96. The Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate, for the accommodation and support of the militia at any time called into actual service, may appoint such commissaries and staff officers as may seem proper, and shall have power to adopt such measures as may be deemed necessary for procuring, transporting and issuing all requisite supplies, and until supplies shall be so provided for any militia called into actual service, the officer commanding them shall have full power and authority to procure, transfer and issue necessary supplies to the corps under his command; and whenever calls are made upon the militia by the Governor, such calls shall be made upon such commanding officer in any division as the Governor shall select.

97. If it shall be deemed necessary by the Governor to make in any year a second draught of militia to serve a tour of duty, such draught shall be ordered by the Governor and be made by the proper officers as soon after the same shall be so ordered as may be practicable, observing the same rules and subject to all the obligations and penalties imposed by this article as well upon privates as upon officers and non-commissioned officers for neglect of duty; but such second draught may be dispensed with in any county or in the city of Baltimore in the ratio that uniform militia corps shall volunteer to perform such tour of duty and their offer may be accepted by the Governor.

98. The militia in Allegany county may all be trained as riflemen, and shall be called out only in company meetings one day in each year in the month of September; the militia on Kent and Assetauge Islands, and those on Hooper's Straits, and those in Somerset county who reside in the district within which William Waller's company was formed, and those living near to, but westwardly from Hancock in Washington county, shall be required to meet only in companies for inspection and drill on the days aforesaid, but the said militia shall in other respects be subject to the provisions of this article.

99. In case of invasion, insurrection, or threatened invasion, insurrection or opposition to the laws within this State, any
