

such commanding officers of corps, extra battalions or companies as have disobeyed his orders to make out their muster rolls.

108. He shall annually in the month of November, or as soon thereafter as possible, make out and transmit to the President or other proper officer of the United States, a complete return of the militia enrolled in this State, and shall obtain from the United States the quota of arms and accoutrements to which this State may be entitled.

109. He shall perform the duty of Armorer at the armory in Annapolis.

110. He shall furnish the captain of any uniform volunteer company with such arms or accoutrements for the use of his company as he may apply for, if the same be on hand or in any of the armories of the State and not appropriated; Provided, the adjutant general shall be satisfied that the company for whose use the said arms and accoutrements are desired numbers at least thirty-two men, and that it is duly organized and uniformed.

111. No arms and accoutrements shall be delivered to any volunteer company unless the captain applying therefor shall first execute to the State of Maryland and deliver to the adjutant general his bond, with satisfactory security, and in such penalty as the adjutant general may prescribe, conditioned for the safe keeping, preservation and return or delivery of the said arms or accoutrements to one of the armorers of this State within the space of twenty days after the company for whose use they were furnished shall have been dissolved or disbanded.

112. In case the arms and accoutrements furnished for the use of any uniform volunteer company shall not be returned to one of the armorers of this State within sixty days after such company shall have been dissolved or disbanded, the adjutant general shall, in writing, request the officer in command of such company at the time of its dissolution to return the said arms and accoutrements to the State Armorer most convenient to the place where such company was organized, and in case of his refusal or neglect to comply within forty days after the date of such request, the adjutant general may cause suit to be brought on the bond given to the State for the safe keeping and return of the said arms and accoutrements.