

11*. If resistance be made to the officer engaged in making such arrest or seizure, such resistance shall be deemed a misdemeanor, presentable by the grand jury of the county, and punishable in the Circuit Court thereof, by fine and imprisonment as other misdemeanors are punished.

12*. After the payment of the costs of the prosecution of the offenders, the balance arising from the fine and the sale of the boat and other property hereinbefore mentioned, shall be divided and apportioned in the following manner: one-half to the officer and those who assisted him in making the arrest and seizure, and the balance to be paid over to the County Commissioners for the benefit of the school fund of the county.

13. No person shall trap, shoot, or in any manner catch or kill any partridges between the fifteenth day of January and the first day of October, nor any woodcock between the first of February and the tenth of June, nor any pheasants between the first of February and the twelfth of August in each year.

14. No person keeping a tavern, restaurant or eating house, nor any market man, shall expose for sale or have in his possession in this State any partridge, woodcock or pheasant, between the times within which the killing of such birds is forbidden by the preceding section.

15. Any person violating either of the preceding sections shall pay a fine of five dollars, to be recovered before a justice of the peace of the county where the offence was committed; Provided, that no fine shall be imposed for killing, shooting or trapping any partridges, woodcock or pheasants in Charles, Caroline, Talbot and Worcester counties.
