171. The inspector of flour at Williamsport shall enter into bond to the State of Maryland, with good and sufficient securities, to be approved by the Governor, in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned for the true and faithful discharge of his duties as inspector.

172. Any person sending or transporting flour from the town of Williamsport to the city of Baltimore, which has been inspected by the inspector of flour at Williamsport, or his deputy, may export, sell or otherwise dispose of the same without being subjected to reinspection in said city.

173. The burgess and commissioners of Williamsport may appoint annually, or otherwise, three competent millers, or two millers and one baker, as a standing committee, to whom it shall be the privilege of any person to appeal from the judgment of the inspector of flour.

174. The three persons so appointed, before they review any flour in dispute, shall take an oath to decide the case to be reviewed agreeably to the standard fixed by the general inspector at Baltimore, and shall then proceed to review and carefully examine the flour in question, and compare the same with said standard.

175. If they, or any two of them, shall reverse the judgment so appealed from, the inspector shall put on the cask or casks containing said flour, such brands as they or any two of them shall declare to be agreeable to said standard.

LUMBER AND COAL.

176. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall biennially appoint one measurer and inspector of lumber, and a measurer of coal, for the town of Williamsport.

177. The said inspector and measurer of lumber shall have power to appoint two or more deputies.

178. The measurer of coal shall have power to appoint one deputy.
