

241. He shall keep a full account of all moneys received and paid by him, and of all vouchers and matters relating to the duties of his office, and at the end of his term he shall deliver all books and vouchers relating thereto, when required by the school commissioners, to such person as they shall elect to receive the same.

242. The said treasurer shall be elected annually, at such time as the school commissioners shall in their constitution or by-laws appoint, and shall receive such compensation for his services as they shall from time to time determine.

243. The regular meetings of the board of school commissioners shall be held quarterly at the court-house in Hagerstown at such time as to them may be most convenient; they may adjourn from day to day whenever the public business shall require it, and the president may call extra meetings whenever any business of importance shall demand it.

244. A majority of said board of commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

245. In case of a vacancy in said board, the county commissioners shall appoint a suitable person to fill such vacancy, who shall serve until the next regular appointment of school commissioners.

246. The board of school commissioners and their successors shall have full power and exclusive control over what is known and denominated the school fund for said county; to have, demand, receive, hold, vest and reinvest the same in behalf and for the benefit of primary schools and for the promotion of education in said county; and all money due or that may become due and payable for the use of said school fund for said county, shall be paid over to the order of the said board of school commissioners for Washington county, and their receipt shall be regarded as a sufficient discharge and acquittance, if it shall appear on its face to be the official order or act of the board of said commissioners.

247. They shall, upon the collection or receipt of any part of the school fund for Washington county, now secured by the bonds, notes, or otherwise of individuals, immediately reinvest
