

WITNESSES.

335. The county commissioners of said county shall levy a sufficient sum, in advance, to pay State's witnesses in said county promptly at the close of each term of the Circuit Court.

336. The collector of said county shall, whenever any person shall present to him an order from the clerk of the Circuit Court for his attendance as a witness, pay to such person or his order the amount due him, after deducting therefrom all charges the collector may have against such witness.

WORK-HOUSE.

337. The county commissioners of said county shall set apart and designate suitable apartments in the jail of said county, to be known and denominated as the work-house of Washington county, and to be kept by the sheriff of said county, under the superintendence and control of the county commissioners.

338. Whenever any person shall become liable to be committed to the work-house, he shall be committed to the custody of the sheriff of said county, to be confined in said apartments for the time specified in the commitment, on low and coarse diet and at hard labor.

339. Upon complaint made to any justice of the peace for said county, that any person from his disorderly conduct gives disturbance to a neighborhood, and is likely to become chargeable to the county, the said justice, if upon hearing the party he shall judge the complaint to be well founded, may commit such disorderly person to the said work-house for any time not exceeding three months, unless he shall find security, at the discretion of the justice, in any sum not exceeding thirty dollars, for his good behavior during the space of six months.

340. Any justice of the peace of said county, and any person authorized and appointed by such justice, may apprehend or cause to be apprehended and committed to said work-house any vagrants, vagabonds, beggars, and other idle and dissolute and disorderly persons found loitering or residing in said county, who follow no labor, trade, occupation or business, and who have no visible means of subsistence, there to be kept at hard labor for any time not exceeding three months
