

ments, leaves of absence, and other actions affecting the status of classified employees, provide for the removal of employees and hold hearings when charges are filed by an appointing authority or a citizen, prescribe the standards of performance and the form and scope of the personnel records that appointing authorities keep, investigate the efficiency of employees in the classified service, and make recommendations for increased efficiency and economy. The Commissioner is also required to check payrolls in advance of the payment of salaries to employees in the classified service, and certify to the legality of the employment of such employees.

By Act of the General Assembly, Session of 1922, Part XVI, Chapter 29, there was established the Department of State Employment and Registration, to be composed of the State Employment Commission and the various examining and licensing boards of the State, with such additional boards as may hereafter be provided for, the head of this department to be the State Employment Commissioner, and to be known as the Commissioner of State Employment and Registration.

Under the provisions of this section of the Act, the State Board of Electrical Examiners and Supervisors and the State Board of Examiners of Moving Picture Machine Operators, by authority of the Board of Public Works, have their official office at the office of the State Employment Commission and transact their official business there.

The Eighth Annual Report, giving in detail the activities of the Commission for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1928, and containing a recapitulation of the activities of previous years, has been issued and is available for distribution upon application to the office of the Commission.
