

- House.* ' A Recusants house shall be reserved to him, and the Kings two parts ^{3 Jac. 4.}
' shall not be demised to a Recusant.
- §. 25. Conformity ' If a Recusant reform, and be obedient to the Laws and Ordinances of ^{1 Jac. 4.}
' the Church, and duly go to Church, and continue there during Service
' and Sermon, he shall during the time of such Conformity, be discharged
' of all Penalties. ^{1 Jac. 4.}
- Heir.* ' If a Recusant die, and his Heir be no Recusant, he shall be discharged
' of all Penalties, in respect of his Ancestors Recusancy; or if the Heir be
' a Recusant and afterwards conform, he shall be in like manner discharged:
' But if the Heir be within sixteen years of age, and at sixteen shall become
' a Recusant, he shall be charged with the Penalties run upon his Ance-
' cestors, until he do conform; but then shall be discharged.
' If such offender conform, or die, no forfeiture of 20 l. a month, or
' seifure, shall ensue upon full satisfaction of all Arrears. ^{29 El. 6.}
- §. 26. ' Any person guilty of any offence against that Statute, except Treason, ^{23 El. 1.}
' and misprison of Treason, which shall before Judgment conform before
' the Bishop of the Diocels, or before the Justices before whom he shall
' be indicted, arraigned or tried, having not made the like sub-
' mission upon his Trial, for the first offence shall upon his Recognition
' of such submission in open Assizes or Sessions of the County where he
' it resident, be discharged of all offences, except Treason, and misprison
' of Treason.
- §. 27. Servant. ' If any person shall willingly maintain, retain, relieve, keep or harbour ^{3 Jac. 4.}
' in his house, any Servant, Sojourner, Stranger, who shall forbear for a
' month together, to hear Divine Service, not having a reasonable excuse,
' shall forfeit 20 l. for every month, &c.
- ' Any that shall keep or retain in his, her or their Service, Fee or Livery, ^{3 Jac. 4.}
' any person that shall forbear going to Church by a month, shall for every
' month he shall so keep, forfeit 100 l.
- ' But a Man may keep his Father, Mother, or Ward, &c. ^{3 Jac. 4.}
- Justices of Peace.* ' Justices of Peace may hear and determine all offences of that Statute, ^{3 Jac. 4.}
' except Treason.
- §. 28. Wives. ' Wives shall not forfeit for not receiving the Sacrament, during marriage, ^{3 Jac. 4.}
' nor Husbands for their Wives, not receiving.
- §. 29. Justice of Peace. ' By the Statute of 1 El. 2. Justices of Oyer and Terminer, and of ^{23 El. 1.}
' Assize, have power to inquire and determine the offences; but by 23 El. 1.
' the Justices of Peace have also power to inquire and determine thereof
' and of the offences the party must be indicted at the next Sessions by
' 1 El. 2.
- ' The Justices of Peace may inquire of the offences against 23 Eliz. 1. ^{1 El. 2.}
' And the Statutes made 1, 5 & 13 El. touching acknowledging Her
' Majesties Supreme Government in Causes Ecclesiastical, and other mat-
' ters touching the Service of God, or coming to Church, or establishing true
' Religion in this Realm; as other Justices therein named may do, and may
' hear and determine all offences against this Act, except Treason and Mis-
' prison of Treason.
- §. 30. Forfeitures. ' All Forfeitures of Money shall be divided into three parts, one third ^{23 El. 1.}
' part to the Queen for her own use; another third part to the Queen for the ' use of the Poor of the Parish, where the offence is committed, to be de-
' livered by the Principal Officers of the Exchequer, without further War-
' rant; and the other third part to the Prosecutor in any Court of Re-
' cord, &c.
- §. 31. Justice of Peace. ' Justices of Peace in Sessions, have power to inquire of all offences ^{5 El. 1.}
' against 5 El. 1. against such as shall maintain the Authority of the Bishop
' of