

The law creating the commission was passed at the Legislative Session of 1920 and appears as Chapter 273. Under this law only such persons, associations or corporations may hold or conduct any meeting within the State of Maryland whereat horse racing shall be permitted for any stake, purse or reward, as are licensed by the Commission.

The Racing Commission has full power to prescribe rules, regulations and conditions under which all horse races are conducted; and may make rules restricting and regulating betting on all such races; fix and regulate the rate of charge by the licensee for an admission, the performance of any service, or for the sale of any article on the premises; and also may regulate the size of the purse, stake or reward offered for the conduct of such races, and the payment of money for salaries, fees and compensation by the licensee.

In addition to licensing racing generally for a prescribed period, bona fide County Fairs or Agricultural Exhibits are licensed by the Racing Commission to conduct racing.

The decision of the Commission in the suspension or revocation of licenses are matters in the discretion of the Commission. The action of the Commission in suspending or revoking any license is final, except, however, the propriety of such action is subject to review by the courts on questions of law only.
