The Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission is an outgrowth of the "Eastern Seaboard Conservation Conferences" begun in 1937. A compact was drawn up and ratified by seven states, including Maryland, in 1941. This compact which was approved by the United States Congress and signed by the President in 1942 is the legal basis of the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission which today is joined by fifteen Eastern Seaboard States.

Each State is represented by three Commissioners, one of whom must be the Chairman or director of the Fisheries Management Agency, one a legislator and a member of the Interstate Cooperative Committee; and the third selected by the Governor. The Commission acts in an advisory capacity only, aiding in the development of (1) uniform marine fisheries conservation laws; (2) adequate statistical programs regarding tidal and ocean fisheries; (3) a marine fisheries educational program, and (4) fisheries management and stabilization programs. To accomplish these ends, the Commission usually meets
