MARYLAND STATE REFORMATORY FOR MALES

Henry Russell Raymond, Superintendent

Breathedsville (Washington County) Telephone: Breathedsville 2800

The Maryland State Reformatory for Males was established in 1945 at the penal institution originally established as the State Penal Farm in 1931. The Reformatory is a minimum security institution.

Male offenders from 16 to 25 are committed to the Reformatory by the Courts for an indeterminate sentence. While primarily for youthful offenders, the Board of Correction may transfer prisoners of any age from the House of Correction or the Penitentiary to the Reformatory. The Board may also transfer incorrigible and unmanageable inmates of the Reformatory to other institutions.

The Reformatory conducts an educational program with regular classes in basic education as well as in vocational and industrial arts education. The institution has the part-time services of a psychologist to aid in the classification and examination of those committed. Located on an 875 acre farm, a dairy cattle herd is maintained which supplies dairy products to the Reformatory as well as to other state institutions. A cannery is also operated, and other inmates are employed on Public Works projects. The average population of the Reformatory is 800 (Code 1947 Supp., Art. 27, secs. 758-760A).
