The State Teachers College at Bowie is a State-operated school for preparing Negro elementary teachers. Originally established in 1867 as the Baltimore Normal School, a private institution, it was purchased by the State in 1908 and moved to its present location. The college offers a four-year teacher preparation course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education and a two-year junior college course leading to the degree of Associate in Arts. Students taking the full four-year course pay no tuition if they promise to teach in the public schools of Maryland upon graduation. The approximate enrollment for 1952-53 was 323.
