This institution was established in 1870 as the House of Reformation for Colored Boys. In 1937, when the property was purchased by the State, it became known as The Cheltenham School for Boys. The present name was adopted in 1949 by legislative authority (Acts 1949, chap. 692). The school provides for the care and training of delinquent colored boys. During the fiscal year of 1955 it provided care for 405 boys committed to the school and 353 boys who were detained there.
