

were appointed for two-year terms, together with executive and legislative officials of Baltimore City, and Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Carroll, Harford, and Howard counties, who serve as ex officio members and advisors to the Commission. The Commission is to select the services to be the responsibility of a metropolitan authority and to prescribe the make-up of the authority and to recommend its tax powers.

Appropriations	1962
	$25,000

MARYLAND CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL COMMISSION

Chairman: George L. Radcliffe

Samuel W. Barrick, Myron Bloom, G. A. Bowen, Carroll Brice, Winslow F. Burhans, C. Lease Bussard, Roger S. Cohen, Jr., Lawrence W. Collins, Edna P. Cook, Charles W. Coss, Edward S. Delaplaine, Chester F. Delphey, Ruby R. Duval, Joseph F. Eisenhauer, John R. Foley, Francis X. Gallagher, Garland S. Guyton, Edward T. Hall, Russell P. Hartle, George Henderson, Harry W. Hill, C. A. Porter Hopkins, William M. Houck, Thomas Davis Irvin, Carey Jarman, Gerald W. Johnson, J. Alvin Jones, Gwynn X. Kinsey, William Preston Lane, Jr., Walter Lee Lears, Philip Liebman, Charles D. Lyon, D. John Markey, Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., James P. Mause, Leroy G. Metz, John H. Mitchell, E. Leister Mobley, Jr., Charles M. Moore, John H. Murphy III, Page T. Otto, Samuel E. Pruett, William C. Purnell, Dennis T. Rash, Milton A. Reckord, George C. Rhoderick, Maurice E. Rimbo, Irvine H. Rutledge, Lansdale G. Sasser, Sr., Walter H. Shealy, David Sparks, Harry L. Stegmaier, Edward Turner, E. Stuart Vaughn, Theodore Whitefield.

Grice Building, Hagerstown

At the request of the General Assembly, the Governor appointed this Commission in 1959 to arrange for the proper commemoration of the Battle of Antietam and other campaigns of the Civil War fought on Maryland soil. The Commission is to coordinate its plans with those of the Battle Commissions of other cities, counties and states observing Civil War Centennials and with the National Park Service. The Commission also includes those members who were originally appointed to serve on the Committee Commemorating Maryland's Role in the War Between the States (J. R. No. 31, Acts of 1959).

MARYLAND COMMISSION FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Chairman: Thomas J. S. Waxter

Vice Chairmen: Mrs. Ralph O. Dulany, Richard Grumbacher, Mrs. William H. Wood

Executive Secretary: Abe Scop

301 W. Preston Street, Baltimore 1

Telephone: 837-9000

The Governor appointed this Commission in 1956 as the Maryland Commission for the Prevention and Treatment of Juvenile Delinquency. It adopted its present name on July 1, 1961. The Commission was established to give leadership in coordinating services for children, in stimulating the development and expansion of needed services,