

ALICE W. HOSTETLER, Democrat, Montgomery County; born in Indianapolis, Indiana, February 16, 1901. Attended Washington, D. C., public schools; George Washington University; DePauw University, B.A., 1922; University of Maryland, M.A., 1934. Housewife. Member, Governor's Committee on Juvenile Delinquency; Montgomery County Charter Board; Board of Mental Hygiene, 1954-55; Montgomery County Democratic State Central Committee, since 1950. President, Montgomery County League of Women Voters, 1941-42; Maryland League of Women Voters, 1942-44; Women's National Democratic Club, 1955-56. Member, Kappa Gamma Gamma, social fraternity, and Theta Sigma Phi, fraternity for women in journalism. Widow. Appointed to the House of Delegates, November 7, 1961, vice Margaret C. Schweinhaut, appointed to the Senate.

BERNARD M. IMBER, Democrat, Baltimore 4th; born in Baltimore, April 14, 1934. Attended Baltimore City public schools; University of Baltimore; University of Baltimore Law School, LL.B., 1957. Admitted to the Maryland Bar, 1957. Member, American Bar Association, Junior Bar Division; Baltimore City Bar Association. Married. Appointed to the House of Delegates, May 1, 1961, vice Jerome Robinson, resigned.

RAYMOND T. WHITE, Democrat, Washington County; born in Hugo, Oklahoma, February 11, 1921. Attended Blackwell, Texas, and Hugo, Oklahoma, public schools; Oklahoma A. & M., B.S., 1941. President of manufacturing company. Served with the U. S. Marine Corps, 1944-46. Chairman, Hagerstown Housing Authority. Chairman, Hagerstown Urban Renewal Committee. Vice Chairman, Maryland Housing Authorities. Married. Appointed to the House of Delegates, October 5, 1961, vice Charles B. Huyett, resigned.