The Employment Security Administration originally established by Chapter 314, Acts of 1937, administers the Maryland Unemployment Insurance Law. It is headed by an Executive Director appointed by the Secretary of Human Resources and serving at his pleasure. The Administration adopted its present name by Chapter 96, Acts of 1970 (Code 1957, 1969 Repl. Vol., 1975 Supp., Art. 95A, secs. 11, 12, 12A; 1971 Repl. Vol., 1975 Supp., Art. 41, sec. 205F).

BOARD OF APPEALS

A three-member Board of Appeals, appointed by the Secretary of Employment and Social Services for six-year terms, hears appeals on claims for benefits, appeals that arise under the taxing provisions of the Unemployment Insurance Law, and other matters that require appellate adjudication including appeals from the hearing officer's decisions regarding WIN registrants (Code
