The Occupational Safety and Health Advisory Board, originally established by Chapter 44, Acts of 1955, as the Occupational Safety Advisory Board, adopted its present name by Chapter 530, Acts of 1968. The Board had its membership reconstituted by Chapter 59, Acts of 1973. The new board now consists of eleven members, all of whom are appointed by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry with the approval of the Secretary of Licensing and Regulation for six-year terms. Two of the members represent industry, two represent labor, two represent the health profession, one represents agriculture, and one represents businesses regulated by the Public Service Commission under Article 78, and three represent the general public. The Commissioner designates one of the public members as the Chairman. The members are selected upon the basis of their experience and competence in the field of occupational safety and health. Both of the members representing the health professions are recommended for appointment by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene. The Secretary of the Department of Agriculture recommends for appointment the member representing agriculture. The Chairman of the Public Service Commission recommends for appointment the member representing businesses regulated by the Public Service Commission.

The Occupational Safety and Health Advisory Board formulates and proposes to the Commissioner of Labor and Industry such reasonable rules and regulations, or modifications, amendments or repeals of rules and regulations, for the prevention of
