The Fair Campaign Financing Commission was created by Chapter 729, Acts of 1974 to establish campaign expenditure limits for certain candidates and to provide for the public financing of election campaigns. The Commission consists of nine members appointed for five year terms. Two members are appointed by the Governor, each of whom represents the majority and minority political parties. One member is appointed by the President of the Senate, one by the Speaker of the House of Delegates, and one by the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals. The Governor appoints the four remaining members from the general public. Two of these members must represent minority groups in Maryland. The Administrator of the State Administrative Board of Election Laws or his designee serves as an advisor to the Commission. The Commission selects its own officers (Code 1957, 1971 Repl. Vol., 1975 Supp., Art. 33, secs. 30-1 to 30-10; 1969 Repl. Vol., 1975 Supp., Art. 81, secs. 465-467).
