The Apprenticeship and Training Council, originally created by Chapter 671, Acts of 1966, had its membership altered by Chapter 539, Acts of 1974. The Council consists of seven members appointed by the Governor with the advice of the Secretary of Licensing and Regulation and with the advice and consent of the Senate for four-year terms. The Governor designates the Chairperson. Three members are representatives of employee organizations, three are representatives of employers, and one represents the general public. Membership of the Council includes black representation.

The Council encourages the development of an apprenticeship and training system through the voluntary cooperation of management, labor, and interested State agencies. In cooperation with other States and the Federal government,
