The Governor appointed this special Commission in 1965 at the request of the General Assembly to make a comprehensive study and review of the criminal laws of the State, criminal procedures, and the administration of criminal justice (Res. No. 22, Acts of 1965).

The Commission submitted its interim report on October 16, 1971, to the Governor and the Legislature. Volumes containing a Report and Part I of a Proposed Criminal Code (June 1972) and a Report and Part II of a Proposed Criminal Code (September 1973) were circulated among the Bench, Bar, and interested public for study and comment. The Commission then submitted a revised draft of a bill and commentary, published as Legislative Council Item No. 6-13 (November 25, 1974). The draft is currently under study by committees of the Legislature.

The Governor appointed this Commission in 1976 to undertake a complete study of the constitutional, statutory, and common law concerning domestic relations and to make appropriate recommendations for improvement in the law. The Commission consists of members of the General Assembly, representatives from the Governor's staff, members of the Maryland Bar, and other interested citizens.

The Commission made its first report to the Governor in January 1978. It submitted as proposed legislation, Senate Bill 604, which with amendments was enacted in the 1978 Session and became Chapter 794, Acts of 1978. This legislation appears in the Maryland Code as Subtitle 6A of Article 3, Courts and Judicial Proceedings. It affects the disposition of property upon divorce or annulment.

The Commission is continuing its work.
