Morgan State College was organized in 1867 under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church as the Centenary Biblical Institute. In 1890 the school's name was changed to Morgan College in honor of Dr. Lyttleton Morgan, whose gift of a large sum of money enabled the school to offer academic work at the college level. The school remained under church jurisdiction until the State of Maryland purchased it in 1939.

By Chapter 550, Acts of 1975, Morgan State was granted university status. A public university, Morgan now includes the Schools of Business and Management, Urban Studies and Human Development, Education, Graduate Studies, and a College of Arts and Sciences.

The University is governed by a Board of Trustees consisting of twelve members appointed by the Governor for six-year terms. By Chapter 538, Acts of 1976, a student in good standing at the University is appointed a member of the Board for a one-year term.

The University is fully accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the State Department of Education. It is also approved by the Regents of the University of the State of New York, the American Chemical Society, the American Medical Association, and the Maryland State Board of Public Accountancy.

The University, which consists of twenty-two departments, offers twenty-eight baccalaureate and twenty master's degree programs. The faculty, which approves of all academic programs, consists of sixty-seven full professors, sixty-eight associate professors, eighty-seven assistant professors, and fifty-three instructors.

During the academic year 1977-1978, 6,091 students were enrolled at Morgan. Of these, 4,487 were full-time students and 1,604 were part-time students (Code Education Article, secs. 13-201 through 13-204).

The Maryland Potomac Water Authority, created by Chapter 411, Acts of 1969, consists of ten members of whom the Secretary of Natural Resources, the Secretary of State Planning, and the General Manager of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District are ex officio and non-voting members. The governing bodies of each of the represented counties within the Authority's jurisdiction, namely Allegany, Frederick, Garrett, Montgomery, Prince George's, and Washington counties, appoint one of its members to serve on the Authority. An additional member serves as an alternate. All members may vote except the Garrett County member until such time as Garrett County is assessed for payments to the Authority. The Gover-
