LIEUTENANT GOVERNORS OF MARYLAND

The office of lieutenant governor was created by the Constitution of 1864 (Art. 2, Sec. 6). He served as president of the Senate, and acted as governor in case of the death, resignation, removal from the state, or other disqualification of the governor. The only incumbent of that office under the Constitution of 1864 was elected on November 8, 1864, and he took his oath of office on January 11, 1865. He served until January 8, 1868, although his term as specified by the Constitution was for four years. The Constitution of 1867 contained a special provision that the governor could serve out the full term for which he had been elected, which expired on the second Wednesday of January 1869. This provision did not apply to the other officers who had been elected in 1864.

The office was reestablished by a Constitutional Amendment (Chapter 532, Acts of 1970) ratified by the people on November 3, 1970.
