

This division has the responsibility for automatic data processing planning and for management control of State data processing resources. The division manages and develops State ADP resources according to a master plan, which is periodically updated to reflect the future information requirements (Code 1957, Art. 15A, secs. 23-25).