MARYLAND CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION FOR WOMEN—JESSUP

Leslie Dorsey, Superintendent

Jessup 20794 Telephone: 799-5550

The Maryland Correctional Institution for Women—Jessup was originally established by Chapter 71, Acts of 1941, as the Women's Prison of the State of Maryland. By Chapter 520, Acts of 1945, it received the name, Maryland State Reformatory for Women. On July 1, 1962, its name was changed to Maryland Institution for Women. It adopted its present name on July 1, 1964.

Prior to the erection of this institution, female prisoners were lodged in a section of the Maryland House of Correction. Before the opening of the House of Correction in 1879, they had been housed in quarters reserved for them at the Maryland Penitentiary.

Effective July 1, 1967, all persons sentenced by the courts in the State of Maryland are sentenced to the Division of Correction and must be admitted to a Reception-Diagnostic Classification Center for testing, evaluation, and assignment to one of the State's correctional institutions. In accordance with this law, the Division of Correction established a Reception-Diagnostic Classification Center at the Maryland Correctional Institution for Women—Jessup. This Center receives all adult women serving sentences ranging from three months through life imprisonment who have been convicted of felonies and misdemeanors and who are not sent to local jails. Upon the completion of these classification procedures in the Center, female inmates are transferred to the proper Maryland correctional institution to complete their sentences. Both the Reception Center for Women and the Maryland Correctional Institution for Women are located on the same grounds.
