

The United States Attorney is appointed by the President of the United States with the advice and consent of the U.S. Senate for a four-year term. Assistant Attorneys are chosen by the U.S. Attorney and appointed by the U.S. Attorney General for indefinite terms.