

appointed by the Governor in 1970, undertook the first reorganization and recodification of the Code since 1888. The Commission was charged to study and revise the Annotated Code in order to improve the organization, accessibility, utility, and clarity of laws, and to eliminate unconstitutional, obsolete, and inconsistent or conflicting statutes.

The Commission produced the following sixteen Articles enacted by the General Assembly: Agriculture, Commercial Law, Corporations and Associations, Courts and Judicial Proceedings, Education, Estates and Trusts, Family Law, Financial Institutions, Health—Environmental, Health—General, Health Occupations, Natural Resources, Real Property, State Government, Tax—Property, and Transportation.

In 1985, the Legislative Policy Committee voted to continue the work of the Commission under a reorganized system of small committees with oversight from the Legislative Policy Committee and continuing review by the General Assembly. Organized to revise the Annotated Code, the committee system includes the Article Selection Committee and individual Article committees: Business Occupations Article Committee, Procurement Revision Committee, and Tax—General Article Committee.

The Library and Information Services Division provides reference and legislative information services to committees, members, and staff of the General Assembly, and the public as well.

The Library collection of 55,000 volumes consists of Maryland laws and related legislative and legal materials, laws and publications of the other states, federal documents, and general reference materials. Reference materials do not circulate except to General Assembly members, their staff, and State agency personnel.

Bill status and other legislative information is provided by the Library and its Information Desks. Through the Library, the Department serves as an official depository for the publications of Maryland State agencies and for all local codes published by county and municipal governments (Code 1957, Art. 25, sec. 32A; Art. 25A, sec. 7; Art. 25B, sec. 7, 12; State Government Article, sec. 2-1312; Education Article, sec. 23-2A-01). Maryland Documents, a list of State agency publications, is published monthly.
