

Acts of 1987). The Council reviews early childhood education programs in Maryland, including the development of public preschool programs; devises methods to evaluate and monitor public preschool programs; and promotes early childhood education.

The Council has twelve members. Eight are appointed by the Governor. Two are legislators, one appointed by the Senate President and one appointed by the House Speaker; one is a representative of the State Department of Education chosen by the State Superintendent of Schools; and one is a representative of the Office for Children and Youth selected by the Director of that office. The Governor designates the chairperson and the State Department of Education provides staff. The Council is authorized to conclude its work by June 30, 1990.

The State Board for Community Colleges was established in 1968 to consolidate governance of the community colleges in the State (Chapter 454, Acts of 1968). Until July 1, 1969, the Board served as an advisory board to the State Board of Education; thereafter, the Board assumed its statutory duties.

Originally, all community colleges were governed by local boards of education. State law in 1968 enabled local boards of education that sponsored community colleges to ask the Governor to divest them of that authority and vest it in separate local boards of community college trustees (Chapter 454, Acts of 1968). By 1974, all boards of
