St. Mary's College of Maryland was originally chartered as St. Mary's Seminary in 1839 (Chapter 190, Acts of 1839). In 1845 it was incorporated as St. Mary's Female Seminary (Chapter 257, Acts of 1845). The College received its present name in 1964 (Chapter 59, Acts of 1964).

An accredited junior college for many years, St. Mary's became a four-year college of liberal arts and sciences in 1967. It is the only four-year institution in the State college system devoted exclusively to the liberal arts. Fall 1988 enrollment at St. Mary's was 1,585 (F.T.E. 1,514), consisting of 1,310 full-time and 275 part-time students.

The College is governed by a board of fifteen trustees appointed to six-year terms by the Governor (Code Education Article, secs. 14-201 through 14-206).
