The office of Secretary of State was created by Constitutional amendment in 1837 to replace the Governor's Council. Appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate, the Secretary of State attests to the Governor's signature on all public papers and documents as may be required (Const., Art. II). The office is the repository for all executive orders and proclamations and is responsible for their distribution (Code State Government Article, secs. 3-404, 3-405). The Secretary of State maintains records of all commissions issued and appointments made by the Governor and annually reports this information to the General Assembly (Code State Government Article, sec. 7-105).

The Secretary of State receives petitions to bring Acts of the General Assembly to referendum, and publishes them together with Constitutional amendments to be voted upon in the general elections (Code 1957, Art. 33, sec. 23-9). Bills adopted by the General Assembly and approved by the
