LUCILLE MAURER

State Treasurer

First elected in January 1987, and re-elected in 1991, Lucille Maurer is the first woman to serve as Treasurer of Maryland. She is the twenty-first State Treasurer since the Constitution of 1851 combined the treasurers of the Western and Eastern Shores into one officer selected by the General Assembly. As Treasurer, she also serves as a member of the Board of Public Works, the first woman to serve on Maryland's highest administrative council.

A resident of Montgomery County since 1950, Treasurer Maurer served in the House of Delegates from 1969 to 1987. She was a member of the Ways and Means Committee for sixteen years and also chaired the Joint Committee on Federal Relations for four years. She is widely known for her experience in developing funding formulas for the public schools and for her legislative leadership in fiscal affairs.

During the years she served in the legislature, Ms. Maurer also was active in the National Conference of State Legislatures, chairing the Education Committee, 1979-80, and the Tax and Trade Committee, 1985-86. From 1980 to 1982, she served on the Intergovernmental Advisory Council of the U.S. Department of Education as a Presidential appointee.

Before her election to the House of Delegates, Treasurer Maurer was twice elected to the Montgomery County Board of Education, serving simultaneously as a Trustee of Montgomery College from 1960 to 1968. In 1967, she was elected to the Maryland Constitutional Convention where she served on the Executive Branch Committee.

Since her election as Treasurer, Ms. Maurer has continued to take an active interest in national professional organizations. A member of the National Association of State Treasurers, she serves as chairperson of the Legislative Committee, and is a former member of the Executive Committee and chairperson of the Northeast Region. Treasurer Maurer also served on the Executive Committee of the National Association of State Auditors, Comptrollers, and Treasurers and now serves on its State/Federal Cash Management Reform Task Force. She has also taken on a number of leadership roles in the Women Executives in State Government, where she currently is Treasurer and a member of the Board of Directors.
