REGIONAL INSTITUTE FOR CHILDREN & ADOLESCENTS—SOUTHERN MARYLAND

Larry H. McAvoy, Director

P.O. Box 369
9400 Surratts Road
Clinton, MD 20735

372-1900

The Regional Institute opened as Cheltenham Center in 1976. Then, it was funded by a State grant from the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene through the Prince George's County Health Department. In 1982, the Center became a State institution renamed the Regional Institute for Children and Adolescents—Prince George's County (Chapter 891, Acts of 1982). Since 1989 it has been known as the Regional Institute for Children and Adolescents—Southern Maryland. The Institute serves severely emotionally disturbed boys and girls, ages 12 to 18 years old, from Prince George's, St. Mary's, Calvert and Charles counties.

Most young people at the Institute reside there. Their average length of stay is eight months. Some day students receive therapy and schooling at the Institute but live at home. The Institute is funded to serve a daily average of 28 youth, including students referred by the court for evaluation and young people who receive day treatment.
