

institutions—Prince George's Hospital Center; Greater Laurel Beltsville Hospital; Bowie Health Center; Gladys Noon Spellman Nursing Center; Madison Manor Nursing Home; and Affiliated Enterprises, Dimensions' for-profit subsidiary.

The Secretary serves on numerous boards and commissions, among which are the Alcohol Beverage Committee and the Apartment/Office Building Association. He has served as President and continues as a board member of the Business and Industry Advisory Council to the Prince George's County School System, and as Director of The First American Bank of Maryland. Until his appointment as Secretary of State, he served as a board member of the Maryland State Chamber of Commerce.

Secretary Kelly is a member of the Knights of Columbus. He also has served as Lector and Cantor at St. Jerome's Catholic Church.

The recipient of many awards, Mr. Kelly was selected as Jaycee International Senator, the highest award of the Jaycee organization. He was chosen one of the five outstanding young Marylanders. He also was recognized by C & P Telephone Company for its annual Citizenship Award, by the Prince George's County Human Relations Commission for its Community Service Award, and in 1988 by the Prince George's Chamber of Commerce for its Prince Georgean of the Year Award.

Secretary Kelly is married to the former Barbara Doolittle. They have seven children and ten grandchildren. The Kellys reside in Mitchellville, Maryland.