

MARYLAND PORT COMMISSION

Chairperson: O. James Lighthizer, Secretary of Transportation

Appointed by Governor with Senate advice & consent: J. Owen Cole, 1991; Jerome W. Geckle, 1991; Thomas T. Koch, 1992; Milton H. Miller, Sr., 1992; John M. Waltersdorf, 1993; Fred L. Wineland, 1993.

859-7397

The Maryland Port Commission was formed in 1988 (Chapter 541, Acts of 1988). The Commission oversees the Maryland Port Administration. By devising flexible procedures, particularly for personnel and procurement, the Commission works to give the Port of Baltimore the competitive edge in maritime trade.

The Commission is composed of seven members. Six are appointed to three-year terms by the Governor with Senate advice and consent. The Secretary of Transportation serves as chairperson (Code Transportation Article, secs. 6-201 through 6-204).

MARYLAND PORT ADMINISTRATION

Brendan W. O'Malley, Executive Director
Vacancy, Deputy Executive Director

World Trade Center
401 E. Pratt St.
Baltimore, MD 21202

333-4500

The Maryland Port Administration originated in 1956 as the Maryland Port Authority (Chapter 2, Acts of Special Session of 1956). The Authority became the Maryland Port Administration in 1970 (Chapter 526, Acts of 1970). The Administration was made part of the Department of Transportation in 1971.

The Administration works to promote and increase waterborne commerce in Maryland and particularly at the Port of Baltimore. It improves facilities and strengthens the workings of the private operator. If private facilities are inadequate, the Authority may construct and, if necessary, operate supplementary public facilities (Code Transportation Article, secs. 6-101 through 6-502). In 1979, operation of the port of Cambridge was placed under the control of the Administration (Chapter 280, Acts of 1979).

The Administration operates field offices in New York, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Brussels, and London, and is represented in Tokyo and Hong Kong. The Administration also owns and operates the World Trade Center in Baltimore.

DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

Isaac Shafran, Director

333-4394

The Development Department is responsible for planning, engineering, construction and dredging programs for the ports of Maryland.

MARKETING DEPARTMENT

Bruce E. Cashon, Director

333-3160

Through a network of regional and international offices, the Marketing Department promotes the movement of waterborne commerce through Maryland's marine terminals, thereby creating revenues and employment and improving the State's economy.

OPERATIONS DEPARTMENT

Morgan C. Bailey, Director

333-4496

The Operations Department works to provide safe and efficient marine terminals for handling waterborne commerce at Seagirt, Dundalk, North and South Locust Point, the Intermodal Container Transfer Facility, Clinton Street terminal, Fairfield Automobile terminal, and Cambridge marine terminal on the Eastern Shore.

MARYLAND INTERNATIONAL TERMINALS

Michael Angelos, President

631-1202

Maryland International Terminals, a nonprofit subsidiary of the Maryland Port Administration, was created in 1990 to give the Administration a direct role in labor negotiations and in operating public port facilities.

ADMINISTRATION & BUSINESS MANAGEMENT DEPARTMENT

Tracy V. Drake, Director

333-4998

The Administration and Business Management Department is responsible for the Port Administration's personnel system, training and education, fair employment practices, and office support services. It also oversees governmental affairs, Port Commission staffing, and certain business law practices.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

G. Gregory Russell, Director

333-4447

The Finance Department directs financial affairs and management information systems of the Port Administration, including accounting, budget, procurement, and real estate leasing.