The Chesapeake Bay Trust was created in 1985 as a nonprofit organization (Chapter 789, Acts of 1985). The Trust promotes public awareness and participation in restoring and protecting the water quality and the aquatic and land resources of Chesapeake Bay. For these purposes, the Trust solicits and accepts gifts, grants, legacies, or endowments of money from federal, State or local government, or from private sources. These contributions are distributed to nonprofit organizations, community associations, civic groups, schools, or public agencies for citizen involvement projects.

Activities that may qualify for funding include, but are not limited to, projects which: 1) preserve water quality and habitat; 2) restore aquatic and land resources; 3) produce educational materials; 4) provide educational scholarships or training; and 5) promote conservation programs. The Trust may not consider activities that advocate a political candidate or a political solution. The Trust also develops projects for sponsorship by corporate and business organizations or by individuals.

The Trust is governed by a nineteen-member Board of Trustees. The Governor appoints fourteen members to represent the interests of local government, education, environmental conservation, business, and the public. Appointed members serve four-year terms. Five members serve ex officio: the President of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Delegates, Secretary of Agriculture, Secretary of the Environment, and Secretary of Natural Resources, or their designees (Code Natural Resources Article, secs. 8-1901 through 8-1910).
