The Joint Committee on Federal Relations originated as the Maryland Commission on Intergovernmental Cooperation in 1937 (Chapter 331, Acts of 1937). The Commission was reorganized as the Joint Committee on Federal Relations in 1983 (Chapter 401, Acts of 1983). The Committee monitors and evaluates the relations between State and federal government and the impact of proposals to alter those relationships on the State, local government, and Maryland citizens. It keeps State legislative and executive officials informed of federal relations and the impact of proposals for change. The Committee serves also as a forum for the consideration of certain State-local issues.

To advance cooperation between the State and other units of government, the Committee formulates proposals for the adoption of compacts, the enactment of uniform or reciprocal statutes, and the adoption of uniform or reciprocal administrative rules. The Committee also endorses informal cooperation of governmental offices, personal cooperation of government officials and employees, and the exchange and clearance of research and information.

The Committee consists of sixteen members. Eight members of the Senate are appointed by the President and eight members of the House of Delegates are appointed by the Speaker. The Senate President and House Speaker designate the chairperson and vice-chairperson (Code State Government Article, secs. 2-901 through 2-906).
