MANDATED REPORTS

Annual Report to Governor, Comptroller of the Treasury, Senate President, House Speaker, and Secretary of Budget & Fiscal Planning due Jan.

The Maryland Higher Education Supplemental Loan Authority was created in 1982 (Chapter 488, Acts of 1982). The Authority issues tax-exempt revenue bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness on behalf of participating colleges and universities, which use the proceeds for student loans. Loan applications and brochures describing the loan program are available upon request. The Authority is self-supporting and does not receive an appropriation of State funds.

The Authority consists of eleven members. Nine are appointed by the Governor and two serve ex officio. Of the appointed members, two are trustees, directors, officers, or employees of institutions of higher education, at least one of whom is from an institution not owned or operated by the State or any of its political subdivisions. Two members are experienced in State and municipal finance, one in higher education finance, and two in student financial aid. Two members are appointed from the public at large. Members serve three-year terms. The Authority appoints the Executive Director (Code Education Article, secs. 18-1301 through 18-1319).

Baltimore, MD 21201 625-0100

The Maryland Housing Resource Corporation originated in 1985 as the Rental Housing Resource Corporation, a nongovernmental entity established to stimulate the construction and rehabilitation of low-income rental housing in the State (Chapter 732, Acts of 1985). The Corporation received its present name in 1987 (Chapter 309, Acts of 1987). The Corporation operates a special fund that consists of interest money earned on trust accounts held by real estate licensees or on escrow accounts held by vendors or builders of new houses, and grants, donations, and federal funds. The Corporation is exempt from State and local taxes.

The Corporation is governed by a board of directors whose members are appointed to three-year terms by the Governor. The eleven voting members of the board consist of licensees, representatives of nonprofit and low-income housing organizations, and the general public. The Secretary of Housing and Community Development (or designee) serves ex officio as a nonvoting member (Code Financial Institutions Article, secs. 13-601 through 13-614).
