St. Mary's College of Maryland was originally chartered as St. Mary's Seminary in 1840 (Chapter 190, Acts of 1839). In 1845 it was incorporated as St. Mary's Female Seminary (Chapter 257, Acts of 1845). The College received its present name in 1964 (Chapter 59, Acts of 1964).

An accredited junior college for many years, St. Mary's became a four-year college of liberal arts and sciences in 1967. It is the only four-year institution in the State college system devoted exclusively to the liberal arts. Fall 1990 enrollment at St. Mary's was 1,568 (F.T.E. 1,483), consisting of 1,269 full-time and 299 part-time students.

The College is governed by a board of seventeen trustees. Sixteen of these are appointed by the Governor with Senate advice and consent. Fifteen trustees are appointed to six-year terms; one student trustee serves a one-year term. The chairperson of the Historic St. Mary's City Commission serves ex officio (Code Education Article, secs. 14-201 through 14-206).

The Maryland Stadium Authority was created in 1986 to select a site for new sports stadiums in the Baltimore metropolitan area and acquire, or construct, and operate these facilities (Chapter 283, Acts of 1986). The stadiums are to be used for professional football and baseball. Pursuant to 1987 legislation, the Authority selected the site of Camden Yards in downtown Baltimore as the location for separate baseball and football facilities (Chapters 122, 123, and 124, Acts of 1987). The Authority entered into a long-term lease with the Orioles in May 1988. Since that time, the Authority has acquired the properties on the Camden Yards site and construction of the baseball park is proceeding on schedule for completion for Opening Day, 1992.
