The Commission oversees the State Publications Depository and Distribution Program, which is part of the State Library Resource Center at the Enoch Pratt Free Library. Each State agency is required to designate an agency publications contact person and notify the State Library Resource Center of the designation.

The Commission promotes the effective dissemination and use of State publications, may grant depository status to geographically dispersed libraries, and adopts policies for uniform identification, collection, distribution, accessibility, and retention of State publications. It advises the Program in its implementation of Commission decisions, and provides access to State publications.
