1984). It received its present name in 1991 (Chapter 103, Acts of 1991).

The Office identifies and evaluates programs and services for Maryland citizens with disabilities. It coordinates and supports public and private agencies serving people with disabilities, and provides an information and referral service.

The Office identifies and recommends ways to remove barriers to the delivery of services. It monitors and encourages State government compliance with laws and policies that affect persons with disabilities. At least quarterly, the Office also consults with and provides technical assistance to the Maryland Advisory Council for Individuals with Disabilities. In addition, the Office promotes the designation of local or regional offices to coordinate services to persons with disabilities. Authorization for the Office continues until July 1, 1994 (Code State Government Article, secs. 9-1101 through 9-1110).

Within the Office for Individuals with Disabilities are the Maryland Advisory Council for Individuals with Disabilities, the Maryland State Planning Council on Developmental Disabilities, the Governor's Committee on Employment of People with Disabilities, the Technology Assistance Program, and a staff specialist for the deaf and hard of hearing.

MARYLAND ADVISORY COUNCIL FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES

Thomas J. Martin, Chairperson, 1995
(410) 333-3098

The Maryland Advisory Council for Individuals with Disabilities advises the Office for Individuals with Disabilities. The Council reviews statewide programs for persons with disabilities and fosters coordination and support for these programs.

The Council consists of twenty-eight members. Appointed by the Governor, twenty-four members represent public and private agencies and handicapped individuals. Four members serve ex officio (Code State Government Article, secs. 9-1106 through 9-1109).

MARYLAND STATE PLANNING COUNCIL ON DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Joanna L. Pierson, Chairperson, 1994
Susanne Elrod, Executive Director
(410) 333-3688

By Executive Order, the Governor created the Maryland State Planning Council on Developmental Disabilities in 1971 to carry out provisions of the federal Developmental Disabilities Services and Facilities Construction Act (P.L. 91-517), now the Developmental Disabilities Act (P.L. 98-537). In 1973, the Council was reconstituted to enable the State to qualify for certain federal grants. Formerly

In 1977, the Office for Individuals with Disabilities originated within the Office of the Governor as the Office for the Coordination of Services to the Handicapped (Chapter 946, Acts of 1977). The Office was reorganized in 1984 as the Office for Handicapped Individuals (Chapter 295, Acts of
