

In addition to donations from businesses and private citizens, the Trust receives the proceeds from sales of the commemorative Chesapeake Bay license plate, as well as a portion of gifts to the Chesapeake Bay and Endangered Species Fund via the tax check-off on the Maryland State income tax return. The tax check-off, created in 1989, enables Marylanders to contribute for Bay cleanup and programs to aid endangered species.

The Trust is governed by a nineteen-member Board of Trustees. The Governor appoints fourteen members to represent the interests of local government, education, environmental conservation, business, and the public. Appointed members serve four-year terms. Five members serve ex officio: the President of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Delegates, Secretary of Agriculture, Secretary of the Environment, and Secretary of Natural Resources, or their designees (Code Natural Resources Article, secs. 8-1901 through 8-1910).
