Created in 1959, the Maryland Tax Court performs the judicial and quasi-judicial duties of the former State Tax Commission (Chapter 757, Acts of 1959). The Tax Court hears appeals from the decisions of any State agency or assessing or taxing authority that affects the valuation, assessment, or classification of property, the levy of a tax, or the application for an abatement or reduction of any assessment or tax, or exemption therefrom (Code Tax-General Article, Title 3 and sec. 13-1101; Tax-Property Article, sec. 14-512; Art. 48A, sec. 641). It also hears appeals from allowances or disallowances of claims for refunds of taxes, and from cancellations of Motor Vehicle Fuel Dealers licenses (Code Tax-General Article, sec. 13-510; Tax-Property Article, secs. 9-330, 14-512).

The Tax Court consists of five judges appointed by the Governor for six-year terms. One judge must reside on the Eastern Shore, one on the Western Shore, and one in Baltimore City. Two judges are residents of the State at large. No more than three judges may be of the same political party, and all must be taxpayers and qualified voters of Maryland. At least two must be members of the Maryland Bar, and the Governor designates one of these as Chief Judge.
